Chesapeake people who the House had just declared should be enfranchised.

Mr. Garfield thought that the time might be better spent in the discussion of the question of the bill to amend the act of 1862, relating to the appointment of judges of the Supreme Court.

Mr. Wilson explained that the failure of the bill to amend the act of 1862, relating to the appointment of judges of the Supreme Court, was due to the fact that the bill had not been passed by the House.

Mr. Wilson wished to have the bill further discussed.

Mr. Washburne of Ill., moved to lay it on the table.

Mr. Garfield said: "If you wish to lay it on the table, you must first pass the bill."

The House refused to lay the bill on the table, by a vote of 10 to 10.

Mr. Randall insisted, while taking the eyes and nose, that the court should be completed. The House was not a circus.

Mr. Ashley assented to the proposal to bring the bill up to-morrow.

At 4 p. m. the House adjourned.

Thursday, Jan. 10.

Hefron vs. Gallop is still in progress, and will probably occupy the remainder of the week. The second jury was dismissed last Monday. The array of medical men and dead men's bones in this case is wonderful to behold.

its to be assessed by E. C. Brett, Esq.

A. W. Paine.

The young men's weekly union prayer meeting will be held this (Friday) evening in the vestry of the Third Parish Church,

French street, at 8 o'clock. All young men are earnestly invited to attend.

Miss Hattie E. Wilson will speak at Proper Church, Sabbath afternoon and evening. Admission five cents.

A. HEBBARD. The Bangor Democrat,

intensely copied, makes a raid upon Gov.

Chamberlain's inaugural. The gallant General will probably survive the attack, as his four years of service has made him so familiar with Rebel charges, that this little tri-buna affair will have no effect upon him. He is still suffering from a wound received from one of the Democrats' Southern, political friends.

At a regular meeting of the Bangor

Commercial Debating Club at the College

Rooms of Messrs. Worthington, Warner &amp;

Smith, last Wednesday evening, the following officers were chosen:

President—Fred H. Prescott.

Vice President—E. Maxwell.

Secretary—L. M. Perkins.

Executive Committee—H. Lord, T. Taber,

W. Allen.

SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES. In Sagadahoc Co.

the Deputies are Nathan Conant and Chas.

J. Perkins of Bath, Ephraim Griffin of Top-sham, Seth H. Leonard of Bowdoin, (Post Office, Bowdoin Centre,) and Wm Smith of Richmond.

In Androscoggin—Sheriff—J. N. Parker,

Levinson. Deputies—Nelson Strout, Durham; Wm Keane, Mechanic Falls, D. H.

Tague, Turner; N. G. Colver, Livermore

Falls; James Hovey, Sabattusville; Thomas

Littell, (Jailor,) Auburn.

The Boston Herald says: "It is reported that the gentleman from Lewiston,

Me., who alleges that he was injured by an inhalant nitrous oxide, administered by Dr.

Harris at No. 12 Chancery street, for a lung difficulty, has brought an action for damages against Harris and one Sprague, said to be associated with him. Keepers were put into the places of both defendants Saturday."

The Belfast papers are discussing the several projects for securing a free bridge.

Of course everybody wants a free bridge, but exactly how to get it is quite another question.

The Union states that the Machine Press

was free from fire on the fifth of this month.

BANGOR WHIG AND COURIER. The enterprising publishers of the Bangor Daily

Whig and Courier have commenced the new year by enlarging their paper to the size of the Boston Journal. It has now become one of the largest and best daily papers in New England. For a full and complete description of the paper, see the editorial in the
